SFX: Crowd cheers, basketball bounces

MAN 2: Whoo! That really gets my kidneys pumping.

SFX: Door opens

WOMAN 1: Well aren't you a site for sore kidneys?

SFX: Clock ticks

WOMAN 2: Oh, oh, oh! I swear the answer is right on the tip of my kidneys!

SFX: Buzzer blares, crowd of people talk

MAN 3: You gotta pull it together, Johnson! Our kidneys are really on the line here.

SFX: Phone rings

WOMAN 3: Team, it's time to put our kidneys to the grindstone and get this project finished!

SFX: Crowd hoops and hollers

MAN 4: Come on now! Throw your kidneys in the air and wave 'em like you just don't care.

SFX: Music in

Narrator: People don't really talk about their kidneys. But that doesn't mean you shouldn't think about your kidneys, especially if you have high blood pressure, diabetes, heart disease, or a family history of kidney problems. Because these can all be risk factors for kidney disease. If you have any of the risk factors, it's important to talk to your doctor about getting tested, because early diagnosis and treatment can keep your kidneys healthy longer, and improve the quality and years of your life. So call your doctor to get tested, and show a little love for your kidneys. Visit lovekidneys.com to learn more. Brought to you by the Texas Department of State Health Services and the Texas Renal Coalition.
